Section 2 – Code of Conduct

Section Heading: Volunteer/Employee Mgt	Section Number: VM
Subsection: Code of Conduct	Subsection: 2
Policy Title: Conflict of Interest	Policy Number: 2

Policy Statement: All volunteer/employees shall act in the best interest of Canoe FM without the intent, or appearance, of obtaining direct or indirect benefit that might advance their own personal interest.

Purpose: To clarify conflict of interest.
To prevent actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest.
To protect Canoe FM from the legal and financial risks associated with conflicts of interest.

Definition: A “conflict of interest” is any situation where:
a) a Member of the Board, Station Manager or a volunteer/employee’s personal interests, or
b) the interests of a close friend, family member, business associate, corporation or partnership in which they hold a significant interest, or a person to whom they owe an obligation could influence their decision and impair their ability to act in Canoe FM’s best interest, or to represent Canoe FM fairly, impartially and without bias.

Board of Directors When a declaration of a conflict of interest or potential conflict is disclosed by a Board Member, a decision can be made whether the Member:
a) should recuse themselves from any further participation on the issue, or
b) may participate in discussion, and
c) whether the Member may vote in respect to the issue.

The decision can be made by the Board as a group, either together with the Member who disclosed the potential conflict, or by the rest of the Board in the absence of the Member. Regardless, a Member may recuse themselves on an issue where they have a potential conflict of interest. The decision made shall be recorded in the minutes of the proceeding.

patronize the establishment. Conversely, a simple or casual mention of a business name or location, provided it is important to the on air material, may not be a violation.

2. Discussion of controversial subjects must be based on fact and balanced and present both sides of an issue. Generally the announcer should not conclude with a personal opinion one way. Controversial subjects should first be discussed with the Station Manager. Note: when an announcer is also the Station Manager or a member of the Board of Directors, prior approval will be sought from the Programming Committee and/or the President.
3. The radio station is not to be used as a “soapbox” for personal beliefs, likes, dislikes, opinions, editorializing or “venting” of anger.
4. There are to be no unauthorized on-air guests or interviews. This includes other announcers. Unless approved by the Station Manager, or indicated on the on-air schedule, announcers are to perform their duties without on-air accompaniment. Note: when an announcer is also the Station Manager or a member of the Board of Directors, prior approval will be sought from the Programming Committee and/or the President
5. Live phone bits should be pre-approved by management, if possible. All persons who are interviewed, or used in a phone bit, must be informed (off air) that the contents of the conversation will be broadcast. Should the person object, the material is not to be used.
6. Generally, all references to alcohol should be avoided, with the exception of awareness messages about drinking and driving, responsible drinking, etc.

Section 2 – Code of Conduct

Section Heading: Volunteer/Employee Mgt	Section Number: VM
Subsection: Code of Conduct	Subsection Number: 2
Policy Title: Harassment/Workplace Violence	Policy Number: 8 Revised August 22, 2019

Policy Statement: Canoe FM prohibits any form of harassment or violence in the workplace by Board members, management, volunteer/employees, agents or anyone conducting business with the organization. Volunteer/employees are entitled to work in an environment free from harassment, and workplace violence. All have the right to have their complaints dealt with promptly and confidentially by management.

Purpose: To establish a workplace free of tension or anxiety, for volunteers/employees, and to ensure complaints are dealt with promptly

Definitions

Harassment is a form of discrimination. It includes any unwanted physical or verbal behaviour that offends or humiliates another person. Generally, harassment is a behaviour that persists over time. Serious one-time incidents can also sometimes be considered harassment.

Harassment occurs when someone

- makes unwelcome remarks or jokes about a person that are grounds of discrimination;
- threatens or intimidates a person because of any of the grounds of discrimination;
- makes unwelcome physical contact a person.

Discrimination is an action or a decision that treats a person or a group badly for reasons such as their race, age or disability. These reasons, also called grounds, are protected under the Canadian Human Rights Act

Grounds for Discrimination

- race
- national or ethnic origin
- colour
- religion
- age
- sex
- sexual orientation
- gender identity or expression
- marital status

Haliburton County Radio Association

Section 2 – Code of Conduct

Volunteer/Employees Refrains from any activity contravening this policy Reports any contraventions to the Station Manager or a member of the Board of Directors.

Complaint Procedure

Volunteer/employees who feel that they have been harassed, abused or have been subject to workplace violence as defined above should report the circumstances, orally or in writing, to the Station Manager or designate as soon as possible. If circumstances make it preferable to deal directly with the Board of Directors, he/she may do so.

In instances where the complaint is against the Station Manager, the complainant may report to the President of the Board. Where the President of the Board is involved, the complainant may report to the Vice President or any other Board member. In any case, the complainant may be accompanied and/or represented by a third party of their choice.

This policy does not preclude affected volunteer/employees or any person from using the complaint procedure established under the Ontario Human Rights Code.

The Station Manager or designate will conduct a full investigation, that includes witnessed interviews with both the complainant and the alleged offender. Their statements are to be documented, witnessed, dated and signed. Interviews may be recorded.

All reports and discussions are treated in confidence and no subsequent action is taken without the complainant's knowledge.

If a resolution cannot be reached, or if the action taken is felt to be unsatisfactory, the affected volunteer/employee may appeal to the Board of Directors.

Discipline

Harassment and workplace violence is considered to be a serious offence. Canoe FM has zero tolerance for physical, verbal or sexual harassment or abuse. Offenders will be subject to discipline consistent with "Discipline Policy" and as determined by the Station Manager and Board of Directors.
