

PH Resource List for “Energy Poverty in the Highlands” with Tina Jackson, April 14, 2022

1. Biographical Info on Tina Jackson

Tina Jackson is the Executive Director for Central Food Network and the co-founder of Heat Bank Haliburton County. With a passion for social justice, she has been working with people living in poverty for over 20 years, the last nine of which have been in Haliburton County.

Before becoming Central Food Network’s first Executive Director, Tina developed and delivered several homelessness prevention programs in Kawartha Lakes and Haliburton and prior to that worked in the shelter system.

Tina approaches life as a bit of a minimalist who is guided by authenticity, compassion, integrity and a drive to find balance in the world.
